Pilgrim Ingenuity

Youngsters at Bancroft school, Loft one, did some fancy art work this week to provide a Thanksgiving theme for the school. Here, Laura Brin, six, and Peter Stone, put the finishing touches to a turkey made out of construction paper and finishing off with ties donated, hopefully, by fathers.

Water Rate Increase Is Proposed

Water rates would be raised 17 per cent in order to maintain the 70 per cent-30 per cent ratio of operating the water department on user fee basis.

This is the recommendation made to selectmen this week and which will be acted upon by the board Monday night.

The flat rate system introduced for water billing a year ago when new rates were established at 71 cents per 100 cubic feet, would go to 83 cents per 100 cubic feet, if selectmen approve the increase Monday night.

The recommendation presented by Assistant Town Manager Sheldon S. Cohen and Director of Public Works represents the anticipated revenue needed next fiscal year to keep the water department running on 70 per cent user fees. The remaining 30 per cent is paid out of taxation.

Maintenance of the 70-30 ratio for water department operations is a requirement of Moody's bond rating service, which establishes rates for municipalities.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark informed selectmen that it is desirable to obtain a Triple A rating prior to the next bond issue anticipated in December. Also in view of the anticipated school construction bonding next year, the Triple-A rating would be advantageous to the town and would constitute a considerable savings.

In the report to the selectmen, administrators pointed out that the new flat rate of 71 cents per 100 cubic feet established a year ago came within 2.4 per cent of attaining the 70 per cent ratio, during the current fiscal year.

Problems still come from the necessity of billing on estimated readings. About 30 per cent of all water billing are done on estimates due to the inability of the meter reader to make actual readings. Cards left for residents to record the meter and mail it to the town, are not returned, McQuade said.

Also, the policy of doubling the bill on estimates, complicates proper management procedures since in many cases, abatements must be given.

This policy will also be reviewed by selectmen Monday night.

Current policy is double the bill, if an estimated reading is required during the second billing cycle.

The status of the water division was helped during the past year by the fact that debt service expenses which were approved, did not occur until the 1978-'79 fiscal year. Projections for the future include a $1,250,000 for new transmission lines according to the master plan.

These expenses, when applied to the total operating budget of the department, require additional revenues to keep to the 70-30 per cent guidelines.

It is believed that the ratio will be sufficient to satisfy the requirements for the Triple A rating, even though the bond rating service would prefer the department to be funded 100 per cent by user fees.

The 100 per cent support may also be required if tax cap legislation is approved

Langevin Completes Training

Pvt. Robert A. Langevin, son of Dr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Langevin, 150 Hillside Road, North Andover, recently completed seven weeks of advanced individual training at Fort Benning, Ga.

The training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, landmine warfare, field communications and combat operations. This qualified him as a light weapons infantryman and as an indirect fire crewman.

He was taught to perform any of the duties in a rifle or mortar squad.

Langevin entered the Army in June, 1978.

The private is a 1978 graduate of North Andover High School.

Bresnahan Aboard Kilauea

Navy Machinist's Mate Third Class William F. Bresnahan, son of Brendan C. and Marilyn M. Bresnahan of 64 Sylvan Terrace, North Andover, recently returned from an extended deployment in the Western Pacific.

He is serving as a crewmember aboard the ammunition ship USS Kilauea, homeported in Concord, Calif. While deployed, his ship operated as a unit of the U.S. Seventh Fleet.

During the seven month cruise, his ship participated in various training exercises with other Seventh Fleet units and with ships of allied nations. Additionally, he and his shipmates had the opportunity to visit Taiwan, Korea, the Philippines and Hong Kong.

His ship is 564 long, displaces 20,500 tons, and carries a crew of 401 officers and enlisted men. She is designed to provide rapid transfer of missiles and munitions to other ships. She normally carries two cargo helicopters and can provide replenishment either by heli-lift or high-line transfer.

Bresnahan joined the Navy in July 1975.

Annual Budget Preparation Underway

Its budget time again, with all department heads preparing their requests to be presented to Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark for the 1979-'80 fiscal year.

Faced with possible tax cap legislation, as well as a desire to keep the Andover tax rate within its present level, the manager has requested department heads to submit three different budgets to him for consideration.

One budget would express what is needed or desirable in the coming fiscal year. Another budget will reflect only absolutely necessary costs of the department. A third budget will reflect a ten per cent decrease in departmental costs.

The town manager will review the requests and budgets and put together his annual budget for presentation to the selectmen and finance committee in early January.

Report Cards Issued

Report cards for the first term at Andover High school were issued last Friday.

Any questions regarding the reports should be directed to Assistant Principal Steven Richardson at the high school, 470-1700, extension 254 or 258.

Open House At Collaborative

The Greater Lawrence Education Collaborative will conduct an open house in its new quarters, 10 High St., Andover on Thursday, Nov. 30, from 3:30 to 8 p.m.

The collaborative is a public service agency serving the special needs children in Greater Lawrence schools. The offices were formerly located in the Jackson school.

Displays of work done by the collaborative and explanation of functions will be part of the open house program and refreshments will be served.

Prospective Appointees Introduced

The two new members of the Zoning Board of Appeals, expected to be formally appointed next Monday, met with selectmen at their conference session Monday night.

Ernest N. Hall, former building inspector, and Richard H. Moody were selected by a nominating subcommittee of the selectmen, headed by Mrs. Virginia Cole.

Hall and Moody will complete the board membership which was increased from three to five members by the October town meeting.

The prospective appointees were described by Chairman Albert Cole of the selectmen as meeting the desires of both his board and the zoning board in that they had considerable knowledge of the community.

Residents Appreciative Of Decision

George Kachen, of 26 Bellevue Road, representing residents of the street and immediate area, presented selectmen with an appreciative note "applauding" the board's decision not to extend a gravel removal permit to George Chongris.

Selectman last week refused to extend the permit to Chongris for an operation conducted off Blanchard St.

Kachen said the residents were greatly relieved by the board's decision and presented the letter containing some 60 signatures of residents in the general neighborhood.

Chongris was denied the extension in view of complaints about the operation, but principally because topographical maps were submitted to the board the night before the permit was to expire.

and have busied themselves making ornaments of all types. It's interesting to note the creativity involved in the shapes and designs and the types of materials used in these works of art.

The ornaments will hang from the trees at Town Hall for the viewing public. Participating in the program are: South School, Anne Richardson; Sanborn School, Sara Jamison; Bancroft School Sally, Wolfe; Shawsheen School, Ann DiSessa; West Elementary School, Robert Gillespie and Cindy Weiss; Doherty School, Cynthia Velishka and St. Augustine's School.

Messiah Set For 49th Year

The Andover Choral Society will present Handel's "Messiah" Dec. 10 and 17 at 7:30 p.m.

J. Everett Collins will conduct the chorus for the 49th year.

The Dec. 10 performance will be at St. Robert Bellarmine Church, Haggett's Pond Road, West Andover, and the Dec. 17 performance, at the Free Christian Church, Elm Street, Andover Center.

Andrea Atwood will be the alto soloist, with Priscilla Ganley singing the soprano solo Dec. 10 and Margaret Thompson, Dec. 17. Richard Wall will sing tenor.

Maxine Calt will accompany on the piano and Herbert Irving on the organ.

New Division Formed By Andover Firm

The demand for application software systems by users of small computers for stand-alone and distributed data processing has resulted in the formation of a new, separate division of Software International Corporation, 2 Elm Square, Andover, leading producer of financial and manufacturing application software.

According to an announcement by William G. Watson, president of Software International, "The new division is a complete organization, dedicated to providing and supporting application software systems to users of the most popular small business computers and mini-computers.

"Donald K. Lane, formerly executive vice-president of Software International, has been promoted to divisional president, small business systems. A veteran of a decade with Software International, Lane began his career in data processing with International Business Machines Corporation in New England."

Lane, commenting on the need for application software in this marketplace, said, "More than a year ago, Software International began offering general ledger and financial reporting, accounts payable, and accounts receivable application products to users of small computers and mini-computers. Since then, we have achieved sales 155% better than projected, with substantial revenues. This is dramatic proof that well-designed and fully supported application packages are viable in the small systems area.

"Consequently," Lane continued, "we have just extended our product offering for the Small Business Systems Division to include a versatile payroll/personnel system and a comprehensive fixed asset accounting system. Now all of our financial application products are available for both small as well as large systems. For example, smaller business organizations and small units of larger organizations can achieve the same benefits from the general ledger and financial reporting system for only $15,000 that are realized at more than 200 of the fortune 500 companies.

"Computers for which our packages are now or will soon be available," said Lane, "include IBM System/3 and System/34, Hewlett Packard 3000, Univac 90/30, Honeywell 62, Interdata 7/32 and 8/32, Burroughs 1700/1800, ICL 2903/2904, and Wang 2200. Additional announcements will be made in the future.

"Our initial product offerings are in the financial areas, but we expect to supplement this with new functional product areas including manufacturing. In all cases we believe our users will benefit from our expertise in technical support, extensive documentation, and on-going maintenance and enhancements," Lane commented.

Assigned To Lowry A.F. Base

Airman Stephen M. Camire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Camire of 118 Marblehead St., North Andover, has been assigned to Lowry AFB, Colo., after completing Air Force basic training.

During the six weeks at Lackland AFB, Tex., the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations. Completion of this training earned the individual credits towards an associate in applied science degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Airman Camire will now receive specialized training in the munitions and weapons maintenance field.

The airman is a 1978 graduate of North Andover High School.

The earliest recorded strike was one by an orchestra leader from Greece named Aristos in Rome about 309 B.C. The cause was meal breaks.

AVIS, Rafton Honored

On Sunday evening, Nov. 19, at the Boston Aquarium, The Andover Village Improvement Society and Harold R. Rafton, received from The Massachusetts Conservation Council its 1978 Environmental Award for "A most valuable service in bringing about the conservation of land."

The citation reads: "For more than twenty years the extraordinary achievements of the Andover Village Improvement Society (AVIS) and Harold R. Rafton in land conservation have been synonymous."

"Originally incorporated as the Indian Ridge Association in 1915, it received its unique name in the nineteen fifties and immediately became a leader in community land preservation. Today this Society is a shining example to other Massachusetts towns and cities on how to conserve open space. Between 1964 and 1978, the Andover Village Improvement Society has increased its public holdings from 230 to 845 acres. Working with the Andover Conservation Commission, the Trustees of Reservations and even the Boston & Maine R.R., AVIS has assured Andover and its citizens of even more open space for tomorrow.

"Harold R. Rafton has been the spark and energy in the success of AVIS. As its chief land acquisition officer, he has quickened the advice, assistance and cooperation of its members and Andover citizens. His persuasive leadership to preserve land in Andover has been recognized far beyond the town's borders. Both Mr. and Mrs. Harold (Helen) Rafton have received several awards and citations for land preservation in Essex County. The Andover Village Improvement Society and Harold R. Rafton have inspirationally provided "A Most Valuable Service in Bringing about the Conservation of Land" in this Commonwealth."

Book Views Revolution From New Perspective

Ronald Peters, Jr.

The colonists' desire for individual liberties was the driving force behind the revolution, according to many historians, political scientists, and lay observers.

That notion is disputed by Dr. Ronald Peters, Jr., an assistant professor of political science at the University of Oklahoma, in his book "The Massachusetts Constitution of 1780 — A Social Compact" (University of Massachusetts Press, 1978.)

In the book, Peters contends that while the colonists did hold individual liberties in high esteem, they saw the right of self government as more important. The right of self government, Peters explains, included the concepts of collective consent, majority rule and the common good.

The Massachusetts Constitution is the oldest written constitution in the world, and it was the first constitution to be approved specifically by those who were to be governed by it. In the book, Peters analyzes the constitution and the developments that led to its adoption. He draws not only on the constitution but from pamphlets, newspapers, public documents and personal correspondence from 1774 to 1780 to analyze the political climate of the period.

Peters said that the Massachusetts Constitution, the most influential of the state constitutions, subordinated the rights of the individual to the rights of society.

"Our children," he wrote, "are taught that the famous self-evident truths passage of the Declaration of Independence, with its emphasis on individual rights, captures the 'basic faith' of revolutionary America. Above all, the revolutionaries are supposed to have been believers in limited government — all these things may have been true in other states, and in other state constitutions, but (in the Massachusetts Constitution) the myths of individual supremacy and weak government simply did not hold."

Peters earned his B.A., M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Indiana University in 1969, 1971 and 1974 respectively. He was an associate instructor of political science at Indiana University from 1970 to 1972, and was a senior tutor and undergraduate counselor at the Living Learning Center at Indiana University from 1972 to 1974. He was a visiting professor of political science at Wabash College in 1974-75 before coming to OU in 1975. His specialties are political theory and American government.

He is the nephew of Ted and Virginia Peters of North Andover.

John C. Sleath

Appointed General Manager

John C. Sleath has been appointed general manager of Zurbach Steel Corp., Salem, N.H. The announcement was made by William A. Brown, president of Zurbach Steel, New England's largest processor of flat rolled metal products. The company also maintains manufacturing facilities and sales offices in Southington, Conn.

A native of New Britain, Conn., Sleath joined Zurbach Steel in 1964 and has served in a variety of positions with the company, the most recent being that of assistant general manager and production manager. As general manager, Sleath is responsible for the overall operation of the N. H. plant as well as materials and capital equipment purchasing.

Sleath attended Central Connecticut State College. He served for four years in the U.S. Air Force as an electronic specialist.

Sleath, his wife Judith and their three children reside in Andover.

Bluebirds

Bluebirds compete unsuccessfully with starlings for nesting sites in dead trees. A trail of 7,000 starling-proof nesting boxes, on fence posts or poles, runs 2,000 miles between two towns in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, Massachusetts Audubon notes. During 1976 more than 8,000 young bluebirds were produced on the trail.

At times, strings of popcorn, berries, and gilt nuts, as well as paper flowers, tiny dolls, candies and cookies, were used to decorate the Christmas tree.

Philatelic Gifts At Post Office

Officer In Charge Michael J. Curran reminds holiday shoppers that the Andover post office has available several stamp collecting items that are suitable for Christmas gifts.

Curran said that the post office has the latest edition of Stamps & Stories, the popular U. S. Postal Service guide to stamp collecting, as well as the 1978 Mint Set, which contains all 28 commemorative and special stamps issued during the year.

The 240-page Stamps & Stories book, relates more than 100 stories about U. S. stamps and is designed to introduce non-collectors to stamp collecting as well as to provide interesting philatelic information such as current market values to both novice and experienced collectors. Mr. Curran said that many of the stories in the new edition are new or have been substantially changed since the 4th edition appeared last year.

The 1978 Mint Set, is the latest in a series of annual sets of commemorative and special stamps released by the post office each year prior to Christmas. The cover of the colorful set features a montage of artwork related to the stamps inside and dramatically wraps around all three sides of the folder. Acetate strips on the inside provide spaces in which the enclosed stamps may be mounted and displayed.

In addition to these two items, Curran said, the post office also has a number of popular topical stamp collecting kits available for beginning collectors. The kits have topics ranging from "The World of Sports" and "Space," to Birds and Butterflies and "Diamonds and Triangles." Each of the kits also includes a small 20-page album, mounting hinges, insert sheets for additional stamps, and a 32-page booklet entitled "The ABC's of Stamp Collecting."

Bobcat Badges Awarded

The recent Cub Scout Pack 100 meeting at Sanborn School saw a number of new Cub Scouts receive their Bobcat Badges. Following a presentation of Smoke Signals by Akela and some of his braves, Bobcat Badges were presented to: Scott Adams, Michael Biondo, Douglas Bruk, Felix Chen, Brooks Cutter, Robert Devaney, Michael French, John Hess, David Kaplowitz, Michael Kramer, Christopher Nelson, James Reagan, Stuart Rees, David Seaman, Scott Tobias, Ross Weaver, Gary Witover, Brian Worcester, and Matthew Young.

During the meeting, Harold Wright of the Andover Fire Department spoke to the Cub Scouts and parents present on the importance of fire safety. He then showed a film on fire prevention in conjunction with the Cub Scout theme of "Be Fire Safe."

Players To Entertain

On Friday, Dec. 1, the Tiffany Lane Players are coming to Sanborn.

The Tiffany Lane Players, a group of school children organized by Mrs. Jo DeVelis, will present an evening of fun and entertainment for the entire family.

The public is cordially invited to attend. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. James Adams

The President Was A Guest

Maureen Mahoney of Reading and Jay Adams of Westboro were Married Oct. 21 in a traditional ceremony at St. Agnes Church in Reading.

The reception, however, really took the cake.

They shared George Page's Colonial Inn in Wakefield with none other than President Jimmy Carter and a host of Democrats who had paid $1,000 a person to aid the campaigns of Edward J. King, now the governor-elect, and Paul Tsongas, now senator-elect.

Minutes before the President was to arrive, the newlyweds were escorted to the front of the crowd awaiting the President, and when he arrived, he walked through a barrage of flashbulbs and outstretched hands to bestow a congratulatory kiss on the bride.

"How long have you been married?" he asked.

"About two hours," they replied.

"Well I've been married for 32 years," the President replied, "and I wish you as much happiness as I have known."

The new Mrs. Adams, the daughter of the former Eleanor Doherty of Andover, and granddaughter of Mrs. Nellie Doherty of Chestnut Court, credits her husband with choosing the date.

Rather than changing the date or place when they found out they'd be sharing the Colonial with the President, she whipped off a wedding invitation to the White House.

Another "surprise" guest at the reception was a more local hero from another arena: Carl Yastremzski, who was also attending the fundraiser.

Preparing For Visit

'Visit With Santa' Set

On Saturday, Dec. 2, St. Robert's Country Day School Nursery will sponsor its second annual "Visit with Santa". This is a fair held exclusively for children to come and do their Christmas shopping from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. (Children under ten must be accompanied by an adult, but this is the only fair around where adults aren't admitted without a child).

The Ways and Means Co-Chairmen, Mary ring and Christine DeAngelis plan to have several hundred child-period craft items for sale, as well as plants.

Home-baked cookies, cakes and candies, white elephant items, games, etc. Santa himself will be there to have his photo taken with the children, and free Magic Shows will be given at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. by "Luminello" the magician.

Luncheon will be served, and adults may find some "stocking stuffer" gifts at the "Grandma's Corner" table where gifts for adults will be featured.

Mothers serving on the committee for this year's fair include: Donna Carroll, Barbara Beaulieu, Barbara O'Sullivan, Sue Hanafy, Jackie Connor, Anne Sullivan, Pam Galvin, Joann Phillips, Terry Reid, Pat Selvitelli, Terry Small and Mary Campbell.

Camelot

The shining, magical moments of Lerner and Loewe's Broadway musical hit "Camelot," will be brought to the University of Lowell stage on Dec. 8 and 9 in a full production by the College of Music.

The public performances scheduled for Friday and Saturday evenings are the first in the holiday concert calendar for December, and mark one of two annual productions staged by the campus Opera Workshop, under the direction of Ivan Ingul Oak.

Concert

The Cantata Singers, John Ferris, music director, will open their season with a concert of music by Johann Sebastian Bach and Heinrich Schutz, on Nov. 29, at 8:30 p.m. at Sanders Theatre, in Cambridge.

The program will include Bach's Motet V, Komm, Jesu, Komm; and The Christmas Story, and Magnificat (SWV 468) by Schutz for chorus and soloists, accompanied by an ensemble of Baroque instruments.

Christmas Promises Flower Show Theme

The Andover Garden Club presents "Christmas Promises," a standard flower show on Dec. 8 and 9. This flower show is divided into two major divisions: the Design Division to be held at the Historical Society, and the Horticulture Division to be staged at the November Club.

The Design Division will have 25 creative arrangements including table trees, wreaths, mantel designs, kitchen designs using old kitchen utensils as containers, arrangements appropriate for an antique chest and elegant tea table designs. Fresh plant material which includes fresh fruits, vegetables and flowers will be emphasized in all arrangements.

The purpose of the Horticulture Division of the Flower Show is to educate and to stimulate interest in horticulture. The public is invited to participate in Section B - Pinus. Anyone having some good specimens of Pinus (pine) growing on their property should consider entering this competition. The following is a list of what is required to enter, along with the horticulture rules.

1. All specimens must be grown by the exhibitor. A specimen is a cut branch 10" to 20".

2. Only one entry is permitted in each class.

Class: 1. Mugo (Swiss Mountain Pine) 2. Strobus (Eastern White Pine) 3. Sylvestris (Scotch Pine) 4. Thunbergii (Japanese Black Pine) 5. Any other

3. Containers for cut specimens will be provided by the committee.

4. All entries must be marked with the exhibitor's name and address and should be properly labeled as to variety whenever possible.

5. Entries must be entered on Thursday, Dec. 7, from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

6. All entries must be checked in by the classification chairman and must receive an entry card before being placed.

The Flower show will be held on Friday, Dec. 8 from 2-4 p.m. for members and guests. The general public is invited on Saturday, Dec. 9 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tickets will be sold at the door the day of the show. A special rate will be available for students and Senior citizens. Children under 12 accompanied by an adult will be admitted free.

Contributions Aid Little Wanderers

The "Little Red Houses" of the Greater Lawrence Chapter of Friends of the New England Home for Little Wanderers that have become a familiar sight in area stores in past holiday seasons have been distributed to places of business.

Contributions from shoppers during the holiday season will help to assure happiness for children at the home and for the hundreds of children placed by them in foster homes throughout the state.

Each year the New England Home for Little Wanderers helps well over 1,200 youngsters in its various programs at the Home; at its Child Care Center in Boston; and at group residences they operate — Longview Farm for boys, in Walpole; Everett House for adolescent girls, in Dorchester; and Orchard Home for girls, in Watertown.

In addition, the professional staff at the home offers after-care services, day treatment, education and activity groups to children formerly in the home and carries on an extensive adoptive and foster home program, both short term and long term.

Financing for these programs, plus a few extras for the children are provided in part by Friends chapters throughout the state.

The Greater Lawrence Chapter of Friends requests the public in this area to open their hearts to these children when they see the Little Red Houses this holiday season, as they have in the past.

Chairman of the Little Red House committee is Mrs. Anthony Foresta and she is assisted by the following members of the board of directors: Mrs. Hartley Cranton,

At Ripon

Kevin W. Hanawalt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold J. Hanawalt, 6 Tobey Lane, Andover, is enrolled as a freshman at Ripon College.

A self-designed major program, and various off-campus programs are some of the opportunities available to new students at Ripon. Approximately 940 students from 40 states and a dozen foreign countries are currently enrolled at Ripon. The student-faculty ratio at Ripon is 12-1.

Mrs. Robert Norbedo, Mrs. Haffner Fournier, Mrs. Eric Angell, Mrs. John Cahill, Mrs. Francis Sweeney and Mrs. Louis Bourbeau, advisor.

Reviewing Fair Items

Allison Lowrie, one, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lowrie, checks over some rather interesting items which will be offered during the annual Christ Church Christmas fair.

'Christmas Store' Fair

Christ Church, Andover, will present "Your Complete Christmas Store" at its annual Christmas Fair on Saturday, Dec. 2, from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. Mrs. George Mollineaux and Mrs. Alexander Warren have coordinated the efforts of a host of people to offer shoppers a wide selection of things for Christmas giving.

Hand made articles, original paintings, knitted goods, home-baked food, Christmas decorations and greens, plants, jewelry and gifts for children are but a few of the unusual items that will be available.

An auction items will highlight the 1978 Fair. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Frost, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wright and Richard Bardsley invite inspection of the bargains during the morning and open the bidding at 1:30 p.m. in the parish hall.

The distinctive Christmas decor by Mrs. Michael Hajjar and her committee provides a holiday mood. Fresh greens and wreaths are in charge of Peter Brandt and Mrs. Alan Pratt. Plants and terrariums by Mrs. John Jennings and Mrs. John Webster and dried flower arrangements by Mrs. Louis Hoitsma will also be available.

At the "Promise" tree, such services as snow shovelling, babysitting, cooking a special meal or tickets to a square dance can be purchased at reasonable prices. Mrs. Tom Anderson and Mrs. Richard Bardsley will help in finding the certain promise to fit your need.

The popular Children's table, under the direction of Mrs. James Robinson and Mrs. Donald Earnshaw, will again have a large variety of stuffed animals and toys. For the younger shopper on a limited budget, the Kid's Korner headed by Mrs. George Monks will provide a selection of reasonably priced gifts. Costume jewelry will be available from Mrs. Donald Parent. The stitch and knit table of Mrs. Alexander Gibson and Mrs. Donald Tynning will have warm mittens, scarves, hats and aprons. Gifts for everyone will be available from Mrs. Paul Whitley and Mrs. David Stafford. Quilted items will be featured by Mrs. Ross Morgan and tree decorations by Mrs. James Demers.

The Fair will also include treasures from many attics collected by Mr. and Mrs. John Dennis and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Palenski. Original works of art, pottery and macrame will be offered at the art festival, a joint effort of Ms. Dickie Thiras and Mrs. Theodore Ongaro. Fred Cummings will offer his expertise in fly tying to the fishermen in the crowd, and a large selection of hardcover and paperback books for readers of all ages has been gathered by Mr. and Mrs. William Rogers.

Food in many forms will be available to the hungry shopper. Under the direction of Mrs. Theda Leonard and hostesses headed by Mrs. Robert Parthum and Mrs. Kenneth Taylor, coffee and donuts will be served from 9-10:30 a.m., and lunch from 11-1 p.m. At the sweet tooth table of Mrs. Paul DiDonato will be fudge, peanut brittle, candy apples and popcorn balls. The Country Kitchen run by Mrs. Christopher Corbett and Mrs. Arthur Pierson will have home-made breads, jams, pickles, baked beans and potato salad for Saturday night supper. And to finish holiday baking the easy way, the bakery table of Mrs. Edward Chateaufeuf and Mrs. Peter Omondson will have a selection of cakes, pies, sweet breads and other "goodies".

Santa Claus has taken time out from his busy schedule and will be there for visits and photographs with his young friends from 10-12 p.m. Free babysitting and movies will also be available for children in the morning.

Lyric Stage

On Wednesday, Nov. 29 at 8 p.m. the Lyric Stage Company will open their production of Dylan Thomas' tale 'A Child's Christmas In Wales.'

The two-act play went on before sold-out houses during the limited two-week engagement of the 1978 season. It will return for a four-week engagement from Nov. 29 to Dec. 23. Performances are Wednesdays through Fridays at 8 p.m. and Saturdays at 5 and 8 p.m.

Turning Point

Turningpoint, 13 Essex St., Andover, will hold its annual Craft Fair on Dec. 2 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Craftsmen from the area will display and sell their work. Refreshments will be available at the snack bar throughout the day.

Welcome to our last fire sale.

To a businessman, fire is a devastating experience. Most businesses suffering a major fire don't survive more than a year afterwards. Generally the company is paid for the fire damage, but the rebuilding or relocation expense can be fatal.

May we suggest the following: BUSINESS INTERRUPTION INSURANCE, to pay for lost income while your company rebuilds. EXTRA EXPENSE INSURANCE to pay the other heavy expenses incurred in carrying on the business.

We would welcome the opportunity to discuss your Fire Insurance coverage with you.

Your Hair Today

by Lou Durazzano

One of the most feminine looks in this year's women's clothing inspired by mens-wear is the new look in blouses. Full and graceful with billowing or pleated sleeves, belted or flowing free, the new blouses have the advantage of diversity. They can be worn with skinny pants or the new narrow skirts, dressed up or worn casually as leisure wear. The new blouses play an important part in this year's fashion look. And, best of all there's a style to flatter every figure.

Each hair styling given in our salon at SUPER CUT HAIR SALON, 93 Main St., 475-3711 is an individual service designed to flatter your features so make an appointment soon for a custom cut. We operate an unisex shop where men, women and children are all treated royally. Special rates are available for Senior Citizens. Hours: Mon.-Sat. 9-5, Thurs. and Fri. til 7.

HELPFUL HINT:

Wear a ribbon or braided cord tied round the neck with the new blouses, leaving the long ends to hang down.

Diploma Criteria Reviewed

THE TOWNSMAN, NOVEMBER 22, 1978

A proposal to include some sort of social responsibilities along with other requirements for Andover High graduation, is under further study by a special Diploma Requirements Committee.

Chairman Dick Swift said this week that the group will be meeting Dec. 1 to take a closer look at how the system could monitor such social requirements as community service.

He said the committee has also been going over assorted other recommendations made by faculty members and by parents and other townspeople at a special public session last week.

Swift's committee had earlier gotten a favorable nod on its preliminary goals, including a hike in the number of credits required for graduation from 16 to 20, by the school committee.

At that school committee session. Asst.

Supt. Charles Mitsakos noted that while 16 is the present credit requirement, most pupils already graduate with an average of 18 or 19. He said the idea of 20 came from looking at other systems.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert, who has been particularly concerned with student behavior of late, felt that local youths should also follow a social contract "or they don't get a diploma, even if they get 95 in science."

He said many pupils are discourteous and show a lack of consideration for the school, faculty and other pupils, and that perhaps a notation to that effect should go along with a letter of recommendation to the colleges to which they apply.

He added that the law says that the local community can provide its own diploma requirements.

The diploma committee's preliminary report said that "An Andover diploma certifies that the graduate is a broadly educated individual capable of becoming a productive member of society." Socially, they felt that "graduating students should demonstrate an awareness of social responsibility by performing service to the community, maintaining appropriate behavior in school-related activities, and being courteous and considerate to and understanding of others."

Academically, they felt a student should show competency in communication skills, computation skills, use of media resources and citizenship skills, as well as practical arts, fine arts, history, government, culture, economic systems of the U. S. and the world, health and human sexuality, biological and physical sciences, relationship between people, technology and the environment.

Personally, they felt students should show competency in physical fitness survival skills such as CPR, swimming and first aid, a marketable skill, consumerism and career alternatives.

They would require four credits in English (compared with four now), three credits in social studies (two now), two in math (one now), two in science (one now), one and a half credits in phys ed (one now), one in practical arts, one in fine arts, one-half in health education and five in electives such as foreign language. Currently students have seven electives.

Members of the committee include Phil Wormwood, Pat Dye, Richard McGrail, Kenneth Sanford, Peg Calderwood and Jack Woodward and Asst. They have worked with input from their staffs and the community.

Greek Bread A Tradition

Greek Christmas bread, the "christoposomo," is a large, round loaf decorated with scenes of the vineyard, farmyard, or other themes of the family's life. It is surrounded on the table by a plate of corn, a glass of wine, dried fruit, garlands of garlic, and other good things of the land.

With the family gathered around, the father crosses the bread with his knife, cuts it, and one by one, gives it to his family. Crumbs from the loaf are scattered in the orchard to increase the harvest and fed to the animals to protect them from disease.

Certified

Scott A. Gorrie, Brenda O'Brien and Kathleen Walsh of Andover have been certified as instructor-trainers in Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR), following completion of a workshop held by the Northeast Mass. Division of the American Heart Association.

The Madrigal Singers

Student Musicians On Show

The first of the Andover Schools' Showcase Series, featuring the All School Orchestra and the High School choral groups was held last Thursday at West Jr. High.

Thursday's program was led off by the All School Orchestra, with Paul David Roby playing the violin solo in the first movement of Bruch's Concerto for Violin. The orchestra, led by Linda Roby, also played Carol of the Bells, Mountain Serenade and Matchmaker.

Kathy Coughlin and Doug Taylor sang solos; The Barbershoppers, Autumn Leaves and The Madrigal Singers, This Will Be An Everlasting Love (with Bob McKinley on trumpet, Sean Sweeney on guitar, Scott Nason on drums, Kirk Liponis on trombone, David Leitch on bass and Mark Robichaud on saxophone) and the Chanterelles, Be.

The A Capella Choir and Choral sang Suite for Handbells, Elijah Rock, Curtain Time and Festival Piece on "Saint Anne." Bob McKinley and Mark Easton provided trumpet accompaniment, with Kirk Liponis on the trombone.

Keith H. Gould and J. Everett Collins conducted the choral groups, with Maxim Calt accompanying on the piano.

Chancellor was born in Chicago in 1927 and studied at the University of Illinois. After serving in the Army, he joined the 'Chicago Sun-Times'.

He commenced his career in television broadcasting at WMAQ, the NBC affiliate in Chicago. During his years with NBC he has covered every Presidential campaign in all but one off-year election. Since joining the NBC News team, he has served as anchorman for network coverage of such events as the withdrawal from Vietnam, the Watergate hearings, the resignation of President Nixon, the joint American-Russian Apollo-Soyuz space mission, the 1975 Middle East crises, and President Ford's trip to China. When the "NBC Nightly News" succeeded the "Huntley-Brinkley Report" in 1970, Mr. Chancellor became associated with David Brinkley and the late Frank McGee as a co-anchorman of the program. From 1971 to 1976 he was the Chief Reporter and Writer of "NBC Nightly News." David Brinkley joined him as co-anchorman in 1976.

The Parker Memorial Lecture was established in 1976 by Mrs. Robert B.M. Barton in memory of her father, the late George Swinnerton Parker of Salem, a former vice-president of the Essex Institute and the president of Parker Brothers Games. Following the enlightened tradition of Mr. Parker, who during his lifetime brought several public figures to speak in Salem, the Parker Lecture series has in recent years featured such outstanding media professionals as Walter Cronkite, Eric Severeid, James Reston, and Dan Rather.

The lecture will be open to all members by invitation, and, as seating permits, to the public.

Duchin Featured At Ball

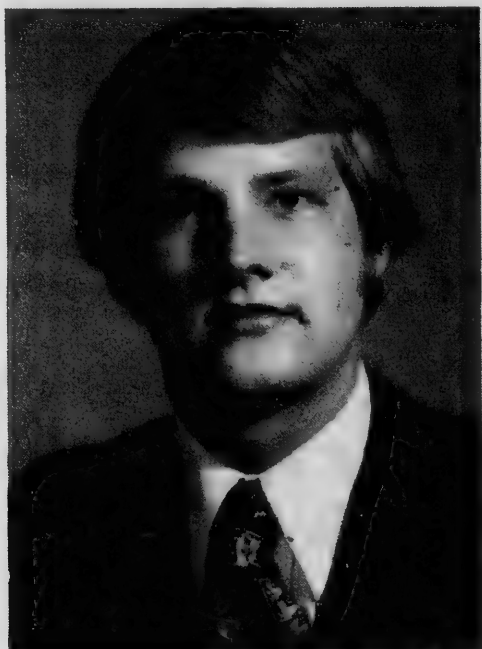

After 15 years in the business of leading bands, Peter Duchin can speak authoritatively of the resurgence of ballroom dancing among all people, not just the young. "They've decided dancing really is fun," said Duchin, the celebrated pianist who will be playing for the Lawrence General Hospital Aid Association's annual Ball on Dec. 1. "Right now Disco's the thing, but there is something for everyone — waltzes, fox-trots, Latin music, jazz, etc."

Peter Duchin, a band leader well in tune with the times, will be bringing six of his group of over 100 trained musicians to the Andover Country Club for the Hospital's annual dinner dance. Dancing and music enthusiasts alike will be treated to a personal appearance by the popular composer-pianist-bandleader entertainer. Duchin himself plays about 150 dates a year across the country and is including Andover in this year's itinerary.

The evening of nostalgia and contemporary music will start with a champagne reception at seven to greet the well-known musician, a seated dinner, and dancing from nine-o'clock until one. Funds from the evening will benefit the renovation of the surgical Day Care center of the Hospital, a very active area since its inception in 1974.

Mrs. Joseph Pellegrino of North Andover is in charge of arrangements for the Ball; she will be assisted by members of the Hospital's Aid Association. Anyone interested in tickets should contact Jane Hart, director of volunteers at the Lawrence General Hospital.

Christmas Toys, Books To Be Topic

A discussion on choosing books and toys for Christmas gifts will be held next Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at Memorial Hall Library.

The Parents will get ideas on finding toys and gifts that suit the learning needs of children, make good investments and appeal to children's interests. On the other hand, they'll learn about toys and books that are a waste of money.

On hand for the discussion will be Linnea Gershenberg, early childhood specialist for Andover Schools; Ruth Hooten of Memorial Hall Library; Louise Breen of the Living, Loving, Learning

Nursery School, Candy Bachner of the Community Coop Nursery, Phyllis Poor of the Ballardvale Nursery and Betty Romeo of Bancroft Shool.

*Thanking God
together.*

Ever since the Pilgrims, Thanksgiving has been a day to thank God for His blessings. Sometimes joining others in gratitude can mean even more. We'd love to have you join us in giving thanks to God this week. Our Thanksgiving Day services include Bible readings and passages from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy; testimonies of gratitude by members of the congregation; and singing of hymns. No collections are taken.

Would you be free to come? (And you can bring your family, too.)

Boston Boy Choir In Concert

The Boston Boy Choir with Men's Schola and Handbell Choir will be the featured entertainment at "A Joyous Christmas Concert" to be presented by the Ladies of Merrimack, Friday evening, Dec. 8, at the Collegiate Chapel of Christ The Teacher, Merrimack College.

Directed by Theodore Maurier, the choir is in residence at St. Paul's Church

Residents Elected

At the annual dinner of the American Heart Association, Northeast Massachusetts Division, five area residents, Lowell J. Rosman, M.D., Andover; Harry Ee. Dickson, M.D., Andover; Gregg Sheppard, Boxford; Rebecca Parkhurst, R.D., Boxford; and John R. Niceforo, M.D., North Andover; in recognition of their commitment and dedication to the Northeast Division, were elected officers and members of the Board of Directors.

Lowell J. Rosman, M.D., was unanimously voted president elect of the Northeast Division. He is a practicing neurosurgeon in the Merrimack Valley area and an Assistant Clinical Professor of Neurological Surgery at Tufts School of Medicine in Boston. He has served as Chairman of the Northeast Division's Stroke Education Committee.

John R. Niceforo, M.D., was re-elected to the board of directors. Dr. Niceforo is a practicing cardiologist in the Andover-Lawrence area. He has served on the Northeast Division's Physician Education Committee and has organized and run many successful Heart Fund campaign special events.

in Cambridge. Maurier is the founder of the choir school and has been its director since 1963. He is an internationally acclaimed conductor and has distinguished himself as a church musician.

Since its founding, the Boston Boy Choir has earned acclaim throughout the United States and Europe. The choir has made frequent appearances with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, including a recording of the 'Damnation of Faust' by Berlioz for Deutsche Grammophon under Seiji Ozawa, and Bach's Lutheran Organ Mass.

Among its many international credits are performances at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome, and Westminster Cathedral in London, England. Locally, the choir has sung with every major music organization in the metropolitan area.

The boys range in age from 10 to 14 years. They are chosen from the finest voices and receive full scholarships to St. Paul's to pursue academic and special music training.

The Boston Boy Choir has been described by music critics as "a rare treat of pristine sound," "a marvelously unified group, with near perfect blend and pitch," "irresistible," "animated, pictorially vivid, impeccably musical."

The program at Merrimack will include a blend of ancient and honored church Christmas music, classical seasonal renditions, and special arrangements for the Handbell Choir that will appeal to a wide range of interests.

Tickets for the Christmas gala have been popularly priced in order to allow entire families to take advantage of this rare musical evening. In addition to individually priced adult and student tickets, family tickets will allow both parents and any number of children to attend for one price.

Tickets are available through the Co-Chairmen, Mrs. Joseph Nahil of North Andover, and Mrs. William Hickey of Georgetown. Since Chapel seating is limited, persons wishing to make reservations are urged to do so early.

Special seasonal decorations will be executed by a committee under the direction of Mrs. John Royal.

Following the concert, the Ladies of Merrimack will host a reception in the Chapel Auditorium. Concert tickets will also serve as admission to the reception.

Memorial Hall Library

Finder's Reaper's

Ann Dowrick, local antiques sleuth, has arranged a display in the Library of some of her "finds" from local flea markets. A recent article in the Boston Globe called Ann "psychic." She credits her success in ferreting treasures out of trash to what she describes as her educated right arm. Mrs. Dowrick is a frequent visitor to the Library. Most of her acquisitions have been identified from the Library's extensive collection of books on antiques. Each article in the display is marked to indicate where she bought it and the reference book in which she located its authenticity.

The Beatles Are In Town

The final feature film in the Fall 1978 Series will be shown at Memorial Hall Library on Friday, Nov. 24 at 7:30 p.m. "The Yellow Submarine," starring the Beatles, is the delightful, animated fantasy in which the Beatles fight off the Blue Meanies, who have the audacity to disrupt the tranquil amiability of the mythical kingdom of Pepperland. Program Coordinator for the series has been Sue Hurwitz and all films have been shown without charge and through the courtesy of the Boston Public Library, Eastern Region.

Museum Passes — A Popular Item

The Library has available for its patrons passes for the Museum of Fine Arts and the Museum of Science in Boston. The Museum of Fine Arts pass admits two people to the Museum free of charge and also provides for a discount at Museum programs. The Museum of Science pass admits one family to the Museum. There is a one-day loan period — the tickets must be picked up and returned the day of use. Both passes may be reserved at the circulation desk or by calling 475-6960. Since the passes are in great demand, reservations must be made in advance.

Children's Room News

Two special programs for children 6-12 years will be held this week. On Friday, Nov. 24 at 2 p.m. the Kitchen Sink Mimes will appear in their delightful program of mime and music. On Saturday, Nov. 25 at 2 p.m. "Phantom Tollbooth," an animated version of Norman Juster's fantasy of the same title, will be shown. Tickets for both programs will be distributed in the Children's Room at 1:30 p.m. each day. The last Pajama Party of the fall season will be held on Thursday, Nov. 30 at 7 p.m. Films-on-Fridays for pre-schoolers will feature "Changes, Changes," "I Know an Old Lady" and "Tikki Tikki Tembo" on Dec. 1 at 10:30 a.m. and 2 p.m.

The Library will be closed at 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 22 and all day Thursday, Nov. 23 in celebration of Thanksgiving.

Restored

The Senate Art Committee has completed the restoration of the Senate Reception Room of the Massachusetts State House. The room, located on the east side of the original section of the Capitol building, was for a century the Senate chamber, but for the past eight decades has been used for receptions and formal gatherings by the members of the Senate. Through the years it had lost its original appearance as Charles Bulfinch, the famous Boston architect, planned in 1798.

Tax Cap Influence Has Bearing On Budget Plans

29

The ANDOVER TOWNSMAN The Second Front Page

NOVEMBER 22, 1978

Proposed tax cap legislation, by which municipalities would be compelled to maintain certain budgetary levels, is having its effect on Andover's budget planning process for the 1979-'80 fiscal year.

With the budget process underway, Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark has asked department heads to submit to him three different budgets for planning purposes.

And, selectmen are interested in drafting a policy statement relative to next year's proposed budget and response to any tax cap proposals.

The town manager in asking that three different budget be submitted by department heads, has asked that one represent what is absolutely necessary, another based on financial requirements of the past year and third, to show a ten per cent decrease.

The plan is to have the tools to cope with any tax cap legislation which may be enacted by the incoming administration.

Clark told selectmen Monday night that he has been told that the advisors to incoming Governor Edward J. King are suggesting that municipal expenses be kept at 1979 levels, which for Andover would be in the vicinity of $16.9 million.

The manager reported this week that in an effort to maintain services now provided by the town, there is the possibility the town would have to do away with about $15,000 in street lighting. Also, with the computer machinery going on line, it could assist in the personnel area, since some positions will not be filled when people retire.

Clark feels the town is already short of personnel in the police department, and in order to maintain safety standards, no reduction in the fire department could be anticipated.

The manager indicated that initiation of user fees may be necessary, such as charging for local ambulance service. At present only out-of-town residents are charged for use of the ambulance.

User fees would also be instituted and raised in some cases in services provided by the Community Services department.

Clark feels that the new revenues coming from industrial development will assist in the maintaining of town services at present levels.

But, faced with an increase in the debt service through major school construction next year, may have an effect, depending on how tax cap is determined.

Clark feels that if tax cap is addressed to the tax rate, then the town would be able to maintain current services through new industrial revenues.

If tax cap is applied to actual tax dollars, then the need for debt service payments would compel a reduction in

League Objects To Closed Evaluation

The six-month evaluation of Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark by selectmen, scheduled to take place this week, has been postponed due to a letter from the League of Women Voters, protesting closed meetings.

Under the signatures of Joyce Robinson, president of the Andover League and Virginia Cascino, selectmen were reminded of the national league's policy on open meetings.

The Andover league expressed displeasure over an executive session proposed for Monday night, in view of recent amendments to the Massachusetts Open Meeting law.

Chairman Albert Cole of the selectmen said that in view of the letter from the league, the board would not undertake the evaluation this past Monday.

Cole said that he had hoped to conduct the evaluation in a manner similar to that used when the board interviewed candidates for the manager vacancy in January and February. While the meetings were open, he said, the press was asked to allow them to informally talk with the candidates.

The chairman said that the evaluation process was to follow the same guidelines. He felt that such an atmosphere would lend itself to all parties being candid and the results more beneficial. Cole said if there were personal observations to be made it would be difficult to do so in a public session.

Cole said that following the evaluation session, a statement would be released by selectmen and the manager.

What action the board will take now that the formal request for an open session on evaluation has been made, has not been determined.

As part of the contract which Clark agreed to in coming here from Dover, N.H. in February, an evaluation was to be made within six months, then annually.

Purpose of the evaluation was to assess goals and to determine if the manager and selectmen were working in proper directions.

Making Early Requests

It's that time of year again, and Andrea and Christine Spignesi of High Plain Road took advantage of an early visit from Santa Claus at the New England Heritage Bazaar at St. Robert's church last Saturday to get in some early requests.

$2.2 Million Added To Renovation Tag

A representative of the State School Building Assistance Bureau has now estimated that it will cost $2.2 million more to renovate East Jr. High than to build an entirely new building.

Joseph Bishop of SBAB feels renovations would cost in the vicinity of $7.8 million, compared to $5.6 million for a new school on land already owned by the town.

Perley F. Gilbert Associates, the architectural firm hired by the school to plan the projects, had estimated a $5.6 million renovation price.

One of the problems of estimating costs,

Making Way For Computers

Renovation work began this week in town hall and the theater building on Essex street in anticipation of the arrival of computer machinery sometime early in December.

Work at the theater building consists of taking initial steps to convert the second floor to use by the department of community development and planning. Also, there will be some renovation work for the Andover Haven on the first floor, including some accommodations to be made for the handicapped.

At town hall, the rooms formerly occupied by the conservation commission are being made ready for the computer machinery. The particular area is adaptable to the machinery since it has cement flooring.

Thanksgiving

The celebration of Thanksgiving marks the beginning of the most joyous season of the year.

From Thursday until the Christmas and New Year holidays are observed, there is a spirit of joy and friendliness prevalent.

Traditionally, Thanksgiving is observed as an American and New England holiday marking the observance made by our Pilgrim Forefathers who paused to give thanks for a bountiful harvest and protection against the rigors of winter.

While our times are far different from those at which the first Thanksgiving was celebrated, the spirit remains basically the same.

We have much to be thankful for. Troubles and problems don't fade away because of the season. They remain, but the severity seems to be deminished as we reflect on the true meaning of Thanksgiving and the holiday season.

World peace, while still elusive, seems somewhat within grasp. In the mideast, for instance, leaders continue to negotiate toward a peaceful settlement of differences which have previously been the subject of warring factions.

Current waves of violence, locally and internationally, capture our attention and we can hope that the season and its spirit will assist in curbing such actions.

Tomorrow, Thanksgiving, will be a day for family gatherings, the meeting at the festive table, joining together in the spirit of brotherhood, from which springs the feeling of love and charity which will prevail throughout the holiday season.

Unlike the Pilgrims, our holiday has such modern day advantages of transportation, allowing families to traverse the miles conveniently for the holiday. Too, there are conveniences afforded for preparation of the meal and electronic devise to provide entertainment throughout the day.

But the observance, regardless of conveniences, remains basically the same as it was centuries ago — a time to pause and express thanks for blessings bestowed upon us.

As at the first Thanksgiving, we remain grateful for His blessings and for the opportunity to rejoice at this joyous season of the year.

A happy Thanksgiving to all.

JACK ANDERSON WITH JOE SPEAR WEEKLY SPECIAL

Carter's Interest Pleases Big Banks

WASHINGTON — The story of inflation can be translated into simple terms. In plain, pocket-book language, it means higher prices at the supermarket and the gas station.

The Thanksgiving turkey, for example, will cost 15 to 20 cents a pound more than it did last year. And the price of hamburger has gone up more than 35 cents a pound. Here in Washington, premium gasoline has hit 80 cents a gallon.

President Carter is taking some drastic measures to hold down inflation. He has been congratulated for his measures by big bankers around the world. The celebrated Swiss banker, Edgar De Picciotto, for example, summed up the sentiment in banking circles with a simple statement. "People have to suffer," he said, "to pay for a quarter of a century of boom growth."

In Chicago, Robert Aboud of the First National Bank applauded the president. In Los Angeles, Richard Kjeldsen of the Security Pacific National Bank termed the president's actions "just what the doctor ordered."

Carter, in short, is suddenly the darling of big bankers. And there is good reason.

The president raised interest rates higher than they have ever been. This will enrich the big banks. They can now charge more for the money they lend. They will fatten their profits at the expense of Americans who buy homes, cars and appliances on credit.

The president has it all figured out. He believes the common people won't be able to afford the high interest rates. They will borrow less money and buy fewer houses and cars. Supposedly, this will force down prices.

The president's policy will penalize the people and benefit the banks. Some economic experts believe he can reduce inflation without squeezing it out of the people. For example, he can slash federal spending. In past reports, we have documented how the bureaucrats squander tax money.

It will take sacrifice and hardship to stop inflation. But Carter has put the burden on the people, not on the bureaucrats or the bankers. Many economists believe the president could reduce inflation more fairly by imposing price, wage and import controls.

The banks have also helped create today's economic strain. They handed out loans overseas, where the interest rates were higher. Many of these loans have gone bad. The secret figures, we are told, exceed $170 billion in bad loans and $290 billion in endangered loans.

If the indebted governments start defaulting on their loans, the shock waves would rock the U.S. banking system. But if this should happen, it's a safe bet the taxpayers would be called on again to bail out the banks.

Amin's Dilemma: Idi Amin, the brutal dictator of Uganda, has staged an incursion into the neighboring country of Tanzania. The Tanzanians are striking back and, according to intelligence reports, may be able to drive into Uganda and perhaps overthrow Amin himself.

Sources inside Amin's presidential palace have passed word to us that the situation in Uganda is critical. Once one of the richest countries in Africa, Uganda is now impoverished. International corporations will no longer deliver goods unless they are paid in advance. Thus the populace is short of everything.

There is a serious gasoline shortage. Salt is rationed. The people don't have enough cooking oil. But Idi Amin has terrorized them until they are too frightened to protest.

Now the shortages are beginning to affect the army. The food is poor and there isn't enough gasoline for the mechanized units. Sometimes Idi Amin cannot meet the payroll.

This has stirred mutiny in some units. According to intelligence reports, rebellious troops were stationed on the Tanzanian border. So Amin ordered his air force to bomb the Tanzanian town of Bukoba in the hope, apparently, that it would provoke the Tanzanians into attacking his rebellious troops.

Prudent Secretary: Health, Education and Welfare Secretary Joseph Califano is fudging in his all-out war on smokers. The secretary is a former three-package-a-day puffer himself. But he saw the light through a haze of cigarette smoke and has been in the forefront of the anti-smoking campaign ever since. Califano has proposed legislation to eliminate smoking in public buildings and has segregated the HEW offices into smoking and non-smoking sections.

But now the battle-weary secretary has hedged on calling for an end to $70 million worth of federal subsidies to tobacco farmers. The subsidies help the farmers earn yearly profits amounting to almost two and a half billion dollars.

In public, Califano maintains that the subsidies aren't important in his anti-smoking campaign. But privately, the secretary admits that he would like the subsidies eliminated.

Our sources claim that Califano wants to avoid a backstage battle with President Carter on the issue. The president promised about 400,000 tobacco growers in the Southern states that they will continue to receive the subsidies. So, if the ambitious Califano pushes for an end to the federal handouts, he would also be risking his tenure as a member of the Carter Cabinet.

Impresses At Harvard

The 1978-79 campaign for the Harvard hockey team will truly be a year of reconstruction. Coming off last season's disappointing 12-14 record, the first losing season in head coach Bill Cleary's successful 12-year reign, the Crimson icemen are also plagued by a lack of a friendly home rink.

The Soldier's field home of Harvard hockey, Watson Rink, is undergoing a major renovation thus displacing the Cambridge pucksters into Boston University's Walter Brown Arena. Sound like the script of Dino De Laurentis' latest disaster flick? No, in fact Crimson followers are looking forward with great anticipation and excitement to the Nov. 21 debut of the 1978-79 edition of Harvard hockey.

And with good reason. Coach Cleary welcomed 18 letterwinners back for the start of practice four weeks ago, including the team's top eight 1977-1978 scorers. Add to this sterling core seven blue chip freshmen and Harvard fans are beginning to dream of the glory years of the early 1970's and Eastern supremacy.

Senior forward Steve Andrews is finally getting a full shot at the Harvard varsity hockey team and the aggressive 6-0, 170 pounder is making the most of the opportunity.

After starting the 1977-78 season with the junior varsity team, the 1975 Hotchkiss School grad saw varsity action in 18 games and was credited with two goals and seven assists. From all pre-season reports, Andrews is impressing those around the team.

"Steve is a very determined guy," says Cleary. "He skates well and always makes his presence known when he's on the ice. I'm sure he'll help us."

Majoring in psychology and social relations, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs.

Jerome Andrews, Jr. of 62 Porter Road in Andover.

A return to the top ranks in Eastern hockey will be no mean feat for Harvard as the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference will be more evenly balanced than ever. Defending national champion Boston University, and improved squads from Boston College, Northeastern, Yale, Dartmouth, Providence and Brown will make the ECAC one of the most competitive leagues in the nation.

Time Runs Out On Pee Wee A's

By Gregg Smith

The Pee Wee A traveling hockey team faced league leader Winthrop at Danvers for the second time this year. Andover had dropped a 4-0 decision to this club on the opening night of the season back in September and were totally dominated at that time.

In this encounter, Winthrop pulled out a 5-4 victory late in the third period after being outplayed and out hustled through most of the contest. It was little consolation to Coach Gilmartin and his players knowing that their overall team play had vastly improved over the initial game with Winthrop. The fact was they never should have lost on this night.

From the opening face-off, it was evident this would be a close checking, penalty-filled game as both teams held nothing back in an attempt to establish an edge. Andover had the first good scoring opportunity when they started a power play at 8:44 of the first period. The line of Bill Donovan, Shane Smith and Jon Moracco kept the pressure on the Winthrop goalie during the early moments of the power play and this pressure resulted in a second penalty which gave the locals a two-man advantage for 18 seconds. Winthrop was able to hold off Andover but shortly after the interactions had expired, Tom Marjerison set-up Jon Crawford at 6:56 to break the scoreless deadlock. This lead was short-lived as Winthrop tied the score at one all and then pulled ahead at 4:19 as a screen shot got behind goalie Steve McDowell.

The second period was all Andover's as they scored three unanswered goals, killed penalties and forechecked flawlessly. At 10:59, after successfully killing a holding penalty to Barry Enos, Andover took charge. Defenseman Tom Marjerison capped a beautiful rink length rush scoring the tying goal, assisted by Crawford and Moracco.

On the ensuing face-off, Marjerison picked up the puck and broke from his point position and carried the puck deep in the Winthrop zone where he fed Crawford a centering pass which Jon converted into his second goal of the game at 10:50.

After the go-ahead, the next shift of LoPresti, Bateson and Morrison upfront with Daly and Guittar on defense continued to apply the pressure which led to a Winthrop tripping penalty at 5:50. Although they didn't score with the man advantage, Andover continued to carry the play.

Crawford connected for this third goal of the night at 6:29, assisted by Mike DelTrecco, to give Andover a 4-2 lead.

This was Jon's fourth hat trick of the season and it raised his total goals scored to 17 to date. As the second period wound down, Andover continued to dominate, almost to the extent that they carried the play during a two-minute span when they were short handed while Smith and LoPresti both sat out minor penalties.

When the third period opened, both teams still skated with a great deal of intensity which lead to a Winthrop player receiving a game misconduct. However, Andover could not capitalize with the advantage and they were suddenly beginning to run out of gas. Consequently, Winthrop scored two goals within a minute to tie the contest at 4-4. Unfortunately, the local boys could not pull out of their defensive shell and at 2:26 Winthrop scored the eventual game winner.

As was the case a week earlier, Andover attempted to regroup and try for the equalizer, but some fine late game efforts by Crawford, Marjerison, Smith, Donovan, Gibson and Daly fell short as the buzzer sounded. The goal tending duties were split during the game by Steve McDowell and Mike Gibson. Additional strong performances were turned in by first-year men Fran Ferrara, Barry Enos, Shaun Bateson and Doug Guittar.

Andover Bantam "A" Hockey Team Improving

The Andover Bantam "A" Hockey team is showing steady improvements as they compete in the top level of the Wilmington Youth Hockey League. The league made up of 19 Bantam teams from Mass., N.H., and R.I., is considered to be the top Bantam league in this region.

After suffering some rather devastating losses early in the season the team has shown signs of developing into a solid league entry. While still winless in the league after nine games the team recently battled two of the top three teams quite well, losing to undefeated Winthrop 6-1 and to Wilmington (one loss) 6-2. In both of these contests Andover was able to be competitive throughout most of the game.

Hurt by lack of skating and practice time early in the season, the team has been gaining greatly in the past few weeks.

Three solid forward units have now been formed to lead the Andover attack. These consist of Rick Apgar centering for George Price and John Best, Tom MacDonald centering for Greg Sacco and J. J. Downey, and Jeff Runge as playmaker for Gary Milne and John Young.

At the blue line the defensive corps is made up of Tim Derby, Jon Pelletier, Bob Leber, Craig Silva, Mike Twomey, and Matt Kiley.

In goal are veteran Kris Williams and rookie Scott Round.

Coaching the team again this year are Richard Neal, Paul McNamara, and Chris Cullinan.

In addition to the Wilmington League schedule, the team will schedule several independent games with traditional New England rivals as well as five games in Canada and three home games in Andover vs. Canadian opponents.

Andover's next league game is scheduled at the Wilmington Arena on Friday, Nov. 24 against Revere at 6:45 p.m.

'Fiddler'

The Gordon Players, under the direction of Dr. G. Lloyd Carr, will be performing the musical, 'Fiddler on the Roof,' Dec. 5 through 9, in Lane Student Center, Gordon College, Wenham.

Eric Benjamin, director of the Park Street Church choir, will direct the pit orchestra. Bev Moore, admissions, visitation coordinator, and a graduate music major of the college is choral coach and music coordinator. Steve Schulz, senior english major, is reproducing the original Broadway choreography of the show. Rich Muth, a senior, is the technical director and Joan Monroe, a sophomore, is stage manager.

Old Ironsides

Most famous of "Old Ironsides" victories in the War of 1812 were the Guerrier, the Java, and the combination of the Cyane and the Levant. Saved from destruction by Oliver Wendell Holmes' poem in 1837, and carefully restored in 1927, she is the oldest commissioned ship in the U.S. Navy.

Dunigan Completes Training

Navy Seaman Recruit Michael F. Dunigan, son of Francis J. and Elizabeth A. Dunigan of 784 Winter St., North Andover, has completed recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Orlando, Fla.

During the eight-week training cycle, trainees studied general military subjects designed to prepare them for further academic and on-the-job training in one of the Navy's 85 basic occupational fields.

Included in their studies were seamanship, close order drill, Naval history and first aid. Personnel who complete this course of instruction are eligible for three hours of college credit in Physical Education and Hygiene.

He joined the Navy in February 1978.

AHS Volleyball Team Presents Top Awards

The Andover High School Girls' Volleyball team has recently finished its season, ending with a 9-6 record overall. On the varsity team, two members were named to the Merrimack Valley All-Conference Team — Lisa DeBruyckere and Pam Ramage. Heidi Anderson was the most improved player overall and Paige Whitley the most improved spiker.

Co-Captains Lisa DeBruyckere and Paige Whitley were the top scorers for the season, with Gail Morrisette also a high scorer and serving most consistently. Coach Joan Bellissimo praised the other supporting members of the team as Joanne Girard, Regina Fernandez, and Patti Sharpe.

The highlight of the season was the Billerica game, in which Andover defeated previously unbeaten Billerica, in best two out of three games; 15-13, 14-16, 11-15.

On the JV team Lisa Fortune led the team as the best Sophomore server, while Elizabeth "Pete" Anderson was the most improved. Terry Graniger and Mary Henderson played excellently as setters, and Sandy Curtis on offense, and Karen Duncan and Valerie Collins on defense also deserve credit. Other players which contributed to the team's winning effort were Cindy Luby, Lisa Birnbach, Bronna Duly, Elisa LaFrenier and Laurie DeSalvo.

Bantam Hockey Team To Play In Canada

For the thirteenth consecutive year the Andover Hockey Association's Bantam "A" team has been invited to travel to Canada to play a series of hockey games against Canadian Bantam teams.

This year the Andover team of boys 13 and 14 years of age will travel to Ontario on Sunday, Feb. 18th and will return on Saturday, Feb. 24. While in Canada the team will play two games in the city of Toronto and three games in the city of Oshawa.

In addition to playing five games, tours of government buildings, The Ontario Science Centre, The CN Tower (tallest free-standing structure in the world), and The Hockey Hall of Fame are planned. The team will be received at the City Hall in Toronto and will also make its annual visit with crippled children in The Bloorview Hospital in Toronto.

To help defray the cost of this trip the Bantam team members will conduct a door-to-door canvass of the town of Andover on Saturday, Nov. 25, Sunday, Nov. 26, and Sunday, Dec. 3. The team members, dressed in their hockey uniforms for easy identification, will be soliciting townspeople to become Andover Bantam Hockey Boosters at a membership fee of $1.

In the past these trips have proved to be most beneficial and educational to the boys involved. On these previous trips the boys' conduct, both on and off the ice, has been exemplary and is a source of community pride.

Under the Federal Ports and Waterways Act of 1972, the U.S. Coast Guard has full authority over ships of any flag operating in U.S. waters to enforce regulations designed to prevent oil spills or other marine hazards.

Y.B.A. Basketball

YBA basketball will begin its second season at the Andover-North Andover YMCA. Sign-ups are now being accepted. All registrations are on a first-come basis and only at the Haverhill Street facility in Andover. Pre-season practice starts on Saturday, Nov. 18.

The concept of "fair play" basketball program in which every boy or girl plays was developed jointly by the national YMCA and the NBA Players Association.

YBA team squads are composed of nine players and each team member must play an equal amount of time. T-shirts and official YBA patches are furnished to each player.

Some 500 YMCAs and 100,000 youngsters across the country have played YBA basketball one or more of the past two years. The program will be offered at the Haverhill Street YMCA building for full privilege and basic YMCA members with teams for boys and girls in Grades 3 and 4, 5 and 6, 7 thru 9, and 10 thru 12.

There are no tryouts in YBA. Each child will be assigned to a team and will have equal opportunity to play.

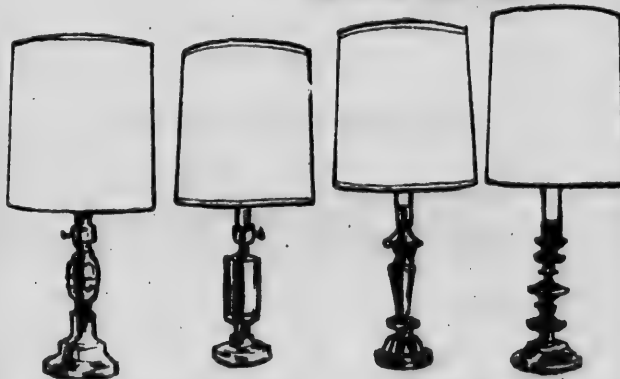

In addition to players, the league will require coaches, referees and other volunteers. There is a possibility of a clinic conducted by a Celtics player which will be available to all YBA players.

For more information on YBA basketball, contact the Andover-North Andover YMCA.

Harvest Ball

The Special Needs dance on Friday, Nov. 24, will be held at the West Andover Community Center. Register at the Department of Community Services office, 36 Bartlet St.

Looking For Instructors

The DCS is currently planing winter programs and activities and is accepting applications from local residents who would like to share at their skills and abilities.

How does a person get involved teaching for the DCS? Above all it is important that the prospective instructor has extensive background and knowledge in the subject matter he or she wishes to teach. A formal teaching background is far less significant than enthusiasm and excitement about the subject/skill being taught. An effective instructing manner combined with an exciting topic and an eager-to-learn group of students, can result in a rewarding learning, as well as leisure time experience.

Applicants who are skilled in academic, enrichment or recreational activities or anyone wishing to suggest new fall programs, workshops, or special events for all and any age groups, should stop by the DCS office at 36 Bartlet St., or call the Department between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Sunday Open Gym

Open gym will be held on Sunday, Nov. 26 at the High School gym from 1-4 p.m.

Seek Students

Local teenagers, between the ages of 14-18 are currently being selected to spend the coming year or summer living with a host family in one of 22 countries world-wide. Youth for Understanding, a 27-year-old non-profit educational exchange program which cooperates with and receives a grant from the U.S. State Department, has openings in Europe, Latin America and Asia for students who are "flexible, curious, independent and eager to try out another lifestyle," according to Regional Director, Hinda Magidson. "Youth for Understanding offers a network of support worldwide, as well as complete orientation, financial aid to eligible students, and the start of a lifelong adventure in being a world citizen."

Local teenagers who would like to learn more about the YFU opportunities should call the Boston office collect.

The fatality rate on the nation's highways since 1955 has fallen from 6.34 deaths per 100 million vehicle miles to 3.25 deaths by the end of 1977, according to the U.S. Department of Transportation.

Wood Burning Safety Program

A program on wood burning safety and energy conservation will be conducted by Extension personnel at the Essex Agricultural and Technical Institute on Nov. 30 in Smith Hall Auditorium from 7:30 to 10 p.m.

Four major subjects of discussion will include wood burning stove safety, minimizing heat loss in the home, using wood as fuel and wood lot improvement through harvesting firewood. Other aspects to be covered are paths of heat loss, insulation, weatherstripping, safe installation and use of wood stoves, heat value of wood compared to oil, best wood to burn, harvesting firewood, woodland management, and other related information.

Lecturers for this program will be Robert Martin, University of Massachusetts, Randy Earle, Essex County Energy Conservation Coordinator, Ralph Goodno, Extension Sea Grant Marine Specialist, and Jack Jackson, District Forester.

Those interested in registering for this free program should call the Essex Agricultural Institute before Nov. 27.

The "Water" exhibit at the Children's Museum Visitors Center, an old favorite, lets you discover the power of water with an assortment of gadgets: a water shooting gallery, a water drop strobe, water tables, pumps, a bubble machine, and more.

"I HAVE MORE ENERGY THAN I'VE HAD IN A LONG TIME"

"Since joining Gloria Stevens, I've lost eight pounds and 22½ inches, and I have gone from a size 11 to a 7.

"Exercising on a regular basis has not only improved my figure, but has given me more energy than I've had in a long time. The support and encouragement of the technicians is fantastic." Nancy Carlucci

Ski Club Plans Supper

The Andover Ski Club will hold its annual Pot Luck Supper on Sunday, Dec. 3 at the South Church in Andover starting at 5 p.m. The club membership will be individually telephoned to ascertain what each family's contribution will be. Mrs. Nina Asgeirsson is the chairperson for this evening and can be contacted for further information.

Ed Hostetter will be showing films made of Buddy Werner races, practice sessions and socials from previous years after the dinner.

Members are urged to get all their monies for club dues in by Nov. 25 to Mrs. Ann White. Late renewals will result in a 50% penalty in classification fees.

There will be a dry land practice at West Junior High on Sunday Dec. 3 from 10-12 noon. Plans are underway to incorporate this practice with an equipment exchange. More information will be available shortly.

On Wednesday, Dec. 6 there will be a free clinic for race officials at West Junior High School cafeteria from 7-10 p.m. Those persons who have never officiated before will receive separate instruction at this time. There will be a roundtable discussion involving everyone chaired by Bob Thomson, president of the United States Ski Association, Jack Young, Ted Sutton and Ed Hostetter.

Race dates for the 1979 ski season have been finalized and are as follows:

Jan. 7 — Andover vs. Bradford at Bradford — Andover is host team.

Jan. 14 — Andover vs. Waltham at Waltham.

Jan. 28 — Andover vs. Concord at Groton.

Feb. 4 — Andover vs. Amesbury/Framingham/Lincoln at Merrimack Valley in Methuen — Andover is host team.

Feb. 11 — Eastern Mass. Team Qualifying Race at Bradford.

Feb 25 — Family Fun Day

Mar. 3 — Eastern Mass. Championships at Nashoba Valley.

Cellin insulation can save you up to 38% on your heating bills year, after year, after year.

When you insulate your home with Cellin, you save on energy. Heat doesn't escape in winter and doesn't build up in summer. The result is lower heating and cooling bills and balanced comfort — year in and year out. Savings on heating bills alone range from about 7% to 38% — or up to hundreds of dollars a year.

Cellin is a superior loose-fill cellulose insulation which is blown into walls, floors and ceilings. Only Cellin offers all these advantages:

Safe and reliable. Cellin is non-toxic, non-irritating to the touch, flame-retardant and non-conductive. It meets or exceeds federal specification HH-1-515C, Type 1, Class 25, and carries an Underwriters Laboratories labeling.

Natural product. Cellin consists of short cellulosic wood fibers made of selected newsprint which has been processed and chemically treated.

Total coverage. Unlike many insulations, Cellin fills every possible space, giving you even, complete coverage.

Higher R-value. Cellin has a greater R-value (resistance to heat flow — the measure for insulation) per inch than most insulations.

Non-corrosive and moisture-resistant. There's no corroding of pipes, no rotting of wood in walls and ceilings.

Other advantages. Cellin is vermin-resistant, reduces noise levels and is long-lasting.

Backed by Bay State Gas Company. Cellin is produced by Con-Serv, a division of Bay State Gas Company.

Warriors Face Central

Andover High's Golden Warriors will close out their football season meeting Lawrence Central Catholic Thanksgiving morning at 10 a.m. at the Eugene V. Love-ly field.

Andover will be attempting to close out its 1978 season with a 7-3 record overall and a 7-2 mark in Merrimack Valley Conference play.

Central comes into the traditional Thanksgiving day clash with a 3-6 record overall and 2-6 in conference competition.

While Andover is considered the favorite for the annual Turkey day game, past performances indicate that winning this one will be no easy task for the Warriors.

Andover Coach Dick Collins and his Warrior teams have always had trouble with the Red Raiders from Central. In the years when Andover was headed for the Super Bowl, the Red Raiders from Central, odds-on underdogs at the time, pressed the Warriors to the limit, one Thanksgiving day game ending in a tie.

Collins and company can expect the same tough opposition from Gus Giadi's Central Catholic crew again on Thursday morning.

Tri-Captains Ed Collins, Len Driscoll and Manny Silva will be playing their final high school game for the Warriors Thursday.

ball of Andover; three daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Hart of Ambler, Pa., Margaret, wife of Robert Darling of Ewa Beach, Hawaii and Eleanor, wife of Charles Gosh of Holly, Mich.; a brother, Donald Kimball of Rochester, N.Y. and ten grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held Friday at 10:30 a.m. in West Parish church. Cremation will be at Harmony Grove cemetery, Salem.

There are no calling hours.

Memorial contributions may be made to the West Parish Church Music Program, 129 Reservation Road, Andover.

Soldiers Show How It Was

Members of the Andover Historical Society got a sight-and-sound lesson in Revolutionary War history last Thursday, when the 5th Mass. Regiment turned out in costume with song. Above, left, Fifers Lucy Briggs and Peter Young; above right, Maj. Edward Parker of the Andover Militia describes the various uniforms and insignias equipment in the Regiment; below, Sgt. Stephen Belyea of Saugus demonstrates folk tunes on the American adaptation of the dulcimer.

The 5th Regiment band backed them all up with an assortment of dirges and folk tunes, including "Chester," "Death of Wolfe," a medley of "Hanover," "White Cocade" and "British Grenadiers," "Hell on the Wabash," and the "Duke of York."

Honored

Beatrice J. Collins of B.J. Collins Realty, 5 Andover St., Andover was one of 19 individuals throughout Massachusetts who were honored during the 54th Annual Convention of the Massachusetts Association of Realtors held at the Holiday Inn, Bermuda. Mrs. Collins was selected 1978 Realtor of the Year of the Greater Lawrence Board of Realtors and is pictured at left receiving congratulations from the Association President Earl A. LaFlamme, Jr., GRI of Holyoke. She is owner of the B.J. Collins Realty and is a member of the "Gallery of Homes."

At Realtor Course

Mrs. Elisabeth N. Cohen of Andover, has successfully completed Course No. I of the 1978 Fall realtors' Institute of Massachusetts held recently at the Colonial Hilton Inn, Lynnfield, according to Massachusetts Association of Realtors President Earl A. LaFlamme.

The Association sponsors two Institutes each year (also in winter) for Realtors and Realtor-Associates as part of its continuing education program. Upon completion of three thirty-hour courses, Institute participants receive the nationally-recognized designation G.R.I. (Graduate, Realtors' Institute).

Mrs. Cohen is associated with Darling Associates, Inc., 33 Chestnut St., Andover.

She resides at 4 Archer Lane with her husband Herbert. They are the parents of four children, Vicki, Marsha, William and Abby.

Holiday Fruit Pudding

1 cup raisins
1½ cups mixed, diced fruits
½ cup chopped walnuts
1 cup sifted flour
2 eggs, beaten
¾ cup molasses
½ cup buttermilk
1½ cups ground or finely chopped suet
½ cup claret wine
1 cup fine dry bread crumbs
¾ teaspoon baking soda
¼ teaspoon cloves
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon allspice
½ teaspoon mace
¾ teaspoon salt

Combine raisins, fruit, nuts and ½ cup flour. In separate bowl, combine eggs, molasses, buttermilk, suet and claret. Add remaining flour, crumbs, baking soda, cloves, cinnamon, allspice, mace and salt to egg mixture. Add fruit mixture and mix well. Pour into greased, 10-inch skillets; cover. Turn burner to 250 degrees. Cook one hour or until center is firm or dry. (Can also be steamed 1½ to 2 hours). Serve with hard sauce.

The Spider's Web

One Christmas Eve long ago, a poor woman grieved because she had no ornaments for her children's Christmas tree. That night, however, a spider covered the tree with a delicate web, which, when touched by the morning sun, turned to gold. Today tinsel strands symbolize the spider's web.

"Where's Boston?" Undergoes Update

"Where's Boston?" the multi-media, quadrasonic sound and slide show that has been seen by more than a million people since its opening in 1975, has undergone a significant update with new scenes and sequences.

Now located in a permanent 200-seat theater at 60 State St., next to Faneuil Hall, the exhibition has added segments

To Complete Vision Screening

The ECLC Learning Center vision screening of the children for Ambliopia will be completed this week.

Parent volunteers are trained to conduct the program. The trainer and coordinator for the program is Mary Claire Barry of Andover. Mrs. Barry has conducted the program for five years. Her training program includes a film, discussion demonstration and practice. The program is designed to discover indications of vision problems which can save serious vision problems later. The specific technique involves playing the "E" game. Children must be able to discriminate the direction in which the "legs" of the letter E are pointing and be able to use a hand signal to indicate what they see with one or both eyes from varying distances.

Ambliopia, sometimes called "lazy eye," is a condition of reduced or dim vision in an eye which appears to be normal. Left undetected, it often causes blindness. However, it can be corrected if discovered early enough. Early detection and prompt treatment are essential. If indication of a vision problem is found parents will be referred for professional eye examination.

Vision Screening Committee members are: Mrs. Claire Barry, 9 Foster Circle, Andover; Trainer and coordinator; Maureen Stapfer, 47 Evergreen Drive, North Andover; Barbara Lee, 2 Olympia Way, Andover; Judy Minicucci, 522 Main Street, North Andover; Andrea Firestone, 9 Hartford Circle, Andover; Jean Pomerleau, 9 Kirk Street, Methuen; Donna O'Sullivan, 9 Pembroke Drive, Lawrence; Gail Farmer, 101 Edgelawn Ave., North Andover; Roe Panusky, 63 Emsley Terrace, Methuen; Barbara Grasso, 122 Autran Ave., North Andover.

Youth Dance

There will be a Youth Dance at St. Robert Bellarmine Church, West Andover on Friday, Nov. 24. Appearing "live" from 7:30-11:30 Stormbringer.

The dance is open to 9th graders and older. Tickets may be obtained at the door.

about the new Faneuil Hall Marketplace, the Hancock Tower and the Waterfront Park areas, all of which did not exist when the show was first produced for the Hub's bicentennial celebration.

The 55-minute show reflects the Boston of 1978, not 1975 with a de-emphasis on the city's Combat Zone, a reworking of the bus sequence to reflect the current lessening of tensions, the addition of a nightlife disco entertainment sequence and Bill Rodgers winning the 1978 Boston Marathon.

As Boston changes, so too will "Where's Boston?" with periodic updates to mirror the shifting personality of the city.

As 3,100 images are projected onto eight large screens, voices of Bostonians offer insights into the people, neighborhoods and traditions of the city as it appears today. In a sense, "Where's Boston?" is a self-portrait.

The show's long-running success is understandable considering the reviews: "straight, honest and beautifully done," Jeremiah Murphy, Boston Globe; "stunningly successful — it captures the flavor of this city," Nora Taylor, Christian Science Monitor; "there's no better introduction to what Boston's all about," Panorama Magazine; "bursting with color and sound," Fran Weil, Boston Herald American; and Robert Campbell, Boston Globe, "No one should miss 'Where's Boston?' It's wonderful."

Other exhibits at "Where's Boston?" are "Boston Artifacts" — objects made and used by the people who live there, representing business, technology, science, politics and "native arts."

The artifacts are located in the "Where's Boston?" lobby as are 22 "Photo Murals," four by six feet in size, creating a gallery of unposed portraits of Boston and its people.

Outside the "Where's Boston?" theater, there are four window displays of "Localisms" — words and phrases not only rich in history and rife with humor, but unique in the English-speaking world.

"Where's Boston?" is on the Freedom Trail. It is presented daily every hour beginning at 10 a.m.

Cambridge Seven Associates, Inc., of Cambridge, is the producer, owner, and operator of the Show. The designer-director is Rusty Russell.

Real vanilla comes from the fruit (vanilla bean) of an orchid, mainly grown in Madagascar.

Thanksgiving Dinner Cost Is Comparable

Price-conscious shoppers will be glad to know that the cost of this year's Thanksgiving Day dinner is comparable to that of one year ago; says the Mass. Dept. of Food and Agriculture.

A record high harvest of native cranberries resulted in more than abundant supplies of the traditional fruit selling at year ago prices.

Fresh native turkeys are averaging $.89-.99 per pound as retailers stock up for Thanksgiving Day. Watch for specials on both fresh and fresh frozen turkeys during the week.

Potatoes and onions lead the list of best food buys. Supplies of potatoes are plentiful with the fall crop estimated at above average levels — prices per pound are about 20 cents less than a year ago. Prices for yellow onions are generally six cents lower than last year due to abundant crop yields.

Also reasonably priced are cabbage, native hubbard, acorn and butternut squash and turnips. Consumers will pay about five cents less for carrots and about ten cents more for celery for holiday relish trays.

Both nutritional and economical, eggs are still a smart food purchase — one dozen large eggs is priced about 87 cents.

Bluefish, cod steaks and pollock fillets are reasonably priced protein alternatives.

For decorative fruit bowls to complement Thanksgiving Day tables or fruit cups to refresh the palate, bananas, apples and pears are specially priced. Fresh pressed cider is a pleasant accompaniment to the holiday meal. Native cider available at roadside stands and retail markets is a very good buy this season.

No Thanksgiving Day meal would be complete without a pumpkin or squash pie. Butternut squash is seasonally priced at two cents per pound less than Nov., 1977.

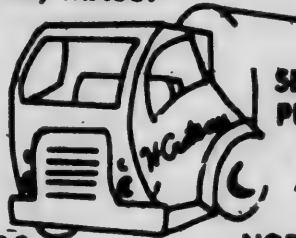

What better way to savor the Thanksgiving Day tradition than eating Mass. grown fresh produce. It's a good idea to buy native — it benefits both the consumer and the grower.

Elks Drawing

The Andover Lodge of Elks, 400 South Main St., will hold its monthly charity drawing on Friday, Nov. 24 from 8 p.m. to midnight.

Dancing to a live orchestra will be held. A special drawing will be held for lobsters. The event is open to the public free. Funds are applied to the Lodge charity efforts.

Anne Ballou Exhibit At Andover Gallery

By Paul A. Ciano

On Sunday Nov. 12 the Andover Gallery of Fine Art presented serigraphs, drawings and constructions by a young and talented artist by the name of Anne Ballou who has recently been making an excellent name for herself in the New England area as a serigraph artist.

Ms. Ballou has developed into a superb technician in the fine art of serigraphs and her most recent endeavors in this capacity underlines her creativeness and skill. The superb drawings which complement this current show gives the viewer an opportunity of seeing the origins of some of the work presently on display.

The surprise for some who have followed this exciting young artist might be the "constructions" which are housed on the top floor of the gallery.

Where is the tie?

Are the drawings, serigraphs and constructions so very different in basic concept?

No, not really.

Whereas Ms. Ballou strives for a rhythmic balance and a repetition of shape and form within the rectangular confines of the windows which frame the composition "hanging pots", one can immediately find the basis or frame-of-reference, if one will, in her "Constructions I and Two." Is the artist really reaching out to say something totally new and different from what she has said before. No, I think not. She is basically saying the same thing only in a slightly different language. She has abstracted some of the forms and carefully redefines the recognition into torn, organic-like shapes. Her hanging pots become balls of yarn. The turning and twisting of her house plants or Aloes leaves are translated into wish bones. Angularly, they too, cut rectangular space and redefine the representational into "seemingly" simple rhythmic patterns that carry the eye from one compositional unit to another.

The artist's tour-de-force is her keen eye for patterns of light and dark as well as the interplay of shapes and relative abstract forms that become their shadows. Carefully examine the well designed negative spaces she creates in even her most representational composition. For me, at least, "Space with Aloes" proves to be a superb redefining of space and shadows cast by this simple house plant. When Ms. Ballou works with color it is always with great taste and a thorough knowledge of what will work and what will best enhance her compositions.

It is her drawings where one finds her truest sense of composition and beauty of line. The overpowering leaf-like forms stretch out their sinewy arms in undulating shapes that carry the viewer's eye in flowing linear patterns of ceaseless motion. They are, inevitably, images of their creator which seduce the spectator into the web of her imagination and the core of her creativity.

This very fine exhibit will remain at the Andover Gallery of Fine Art at 91 North Main Street in Andover through Dec. 7. The gallery hours are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays and 2 to 5 p.m. on Sundays.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

By virtue and in execution of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by DENNIS C. STACKHOUSE, Trustee of Greenbriar Realty Trust, u/d/t dated September 23, 1977, to Essex Broadway Savings Bank, a corporation duly established under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, having its usual place of business at Lawrence, Essex County in said Commonwealth, dated September 27, 1977, recorded with North Essex Registry of Deeds, Book 1320, Page 433, of which mortgage the undersigned is the present holder, for breach of the conditions contained in said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing, the same will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION ON THE PREMISES at Lot 29 GREENBRIAR CIRCLE (formerly Creed Court) at the intersection of Heaven's Way, (now known as Grey Birch Road) ANDOVER, MASSACHUSETTS, ON TUESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1978, AT TWO-THIRTY O'CLOCK P.M., all and singular the premises described in said mortgage, to wit:

That parcel of land, with buildings thereon, in said Andover shown as Lot 29 on a plan entitled "Heaven's Crest" in Andover, Massachusetts, dated November 5, 1973, by Merrimack Engineering Services, and recorded with the North Essex Registry of Deeds as Plan No. 7036. Lot 29 is bounded according to said Plan as follows:

NORTHERLY by the curved intersection of Heaven's Way (now known as Grey Birch Road) and Creed Court (now known as Greenbriar Circle), 31.42 feet; NORTHWESTERLY by Creed Court, (now Greenbriar Circle) as shown on said Plan, 205.00 feet; SOUTHWESTERLY by Lot 36, as shown on said Plan, 200.49 feet; SOUTHEASTERLY by Lot 30, as shown on said Plan, 225.00 feet; and NORTHEASTERLY by Heaven's Way, (now Grey Birch Road) as shown on said Plan, 180.49 feet. Containing, as shown on said Plan, 45,024 square feet of land.

The premises will be sold subject to certain Restrictive Covenants, which shall run with the land and shall remain in force until June 1, 1989, which Restrictive Covenants, being numbered 1-4, are set forth in full in a deed from Dennis C. Stackhouse, Trustee of Essexwood Realty Trust, to John B. LaFrance, Trustee of L & R Realty Trust, dated August 12, 1977, and recorded at the North Essex Registry of Deeds in Book 1316, Page 185.

The premises will be sold subject to any and all unpaid taxes and other municipal assessments and liens, and subject to prior liens and other enforceable encumbrances of record entitled to precedence over said mortgage.

Three Thousand Dollars will be required to be paid in cash or certified check or bank treasurer's check by the purchaser at the time and place of the sale. Other terms will be announced at the sale.

Public Notice
Of

Sewer Extension Permit Applications

The Massachusetts Division of Water Pollution Control has received applications for permits for construction of sewer extensions or connections to the municipal systems listed below. Section 43 of Chapter 21 of the General Laws, as amended by Chapter 546 of the Acts of 1973, requires that public notice be given of every permit proceeding.

The applications are available for inspection and copying at the Division's offices at the above address. Persons desiring to comment upon or to object to the tentative determination of the Division or to request a Public Hearing thereon should submit their views in writing to the Division at the above address within 21 days of publication of this notice. All comments received within this 21-day period will be considered by the Division in formulating the final determination regarding these applications. A Public Hearing will be held only if the response to this notice indicates, in the opinion of the Director, that the public interest would be served thereby.

Following this 21-day comment period, a final determination to issue or deny the proposed permit will be made by the Director of the Division with respect to each permit application, where the final determination remains substantially unchanged from the tentative determination indicated in this public notice, the Director will so inform the applicant, and any person who has filed written comments during this 21-day comment period, of his final determination and of the right of any party aggrieved by the final determination to request a formal adjudicatory hearing within 14 days of the final determination.

Where the final determination is substantially changed from the tentative determination in this public notice, the Director will publish a public notice of the final determination in addition to the written notice provided above. Persons other than the applicant who feel they may have a right to and may wish to request a formal adjudicatory hearing should file written comments during the 21-day public comment period in order to assure receipt of written notification of the final determination.

Within 14 days of the final permit determination, parties (as defined in sections 1, 10 and 10A of Chapter 30A of the General Laws) aggrieved by the determination may file a written request with the Director for an Adjudicatory Hearing under the provisions of Chapter 30A (the Massachusetts Administrative Procedure Act) and this Division's Rules for the Conduct of Adjudicatory Proceedings.

THE GOLD COATS ARE HERE!

and there

and almost everywhere!

CENTURY 21 was conceived in Irvine, California a mere seven years ago. Now there are more than 6000 offices and more than 60,000 proud people wearing those familiar "Gold Coats" from coast to coast. In just seven years, CENTURY 21 came from no-where to become the largest real estate brokerage operation in the WORLD!

Last year CENTURY 21 sold over $15 Billion worth of real estate.

Now, that's a success story!

P.S. Our VIP Referral System is the largest in the world. More important — it really works.

We're proud to be your neighborhood professionals.

REALTOR

HANDSHAKES DON'T COUNT

Many business agreements have been sealed with a "handshake" and enforced in the courts. But when it comes to the world of Real Estate you cannot — and should not — rely on oral promises. In fact, legislation in each of the fifty states specifically requires that all agreements and conditions relative to the sale of real estate specifically be in writing.

In real estate, oral promises or conditions have little standing. If they are not contained in writing within the agreement of sale, or on other papers relating to the transaction, they are not binding. In fact, the typical agreement of sale provides a clause to the effect that all oral statements relative to the transaction made prior to the signing of the written agreement are invalid.

The only way to put any teeth into oral promises, is to insist that everything which you think is significant be put in writing.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

ADVERTISEMENTS

This is the season of families and comfortable rooms with warm fireplaces. We are privileged to offer homes in a wide variety of locales and prices.

In the southern end of Andover, nestled against the state forest, you'll find a five year old Colonial with fireplaces in both the living room and the pitched ceiling family room. This is a warm, cheery home in the Farrwood Forest area and, of course, it has the comfort of four bedrooms, 2½ baths, a two car garage, plus much more.

Price $112,000

Next we can take you to the western part of Andover to another Garrison Colonial well set on a dead-end street and surrounded by conservation land. This three bedroom, two bath home has areas that you would take pride in finishing yourself — and enhancing your investment.

Price $72,500

North Andover is our next stop with a home for a family that needs comfort, room to stretch out, and a very prestigious area. This five bedroom home is set on one of the prettiest lots imaginable just off Great Pond Rd. For the large family this is the buy of the season and occupancy is immediate. Move right in and soon you'll have the living room fireplace crackling and the Christmas cheer flowing toasting your low taxes.

Price $127,500

REMODELLING & RENOVATIONS

Are you overlooking an extraordinary way of life?

These people are.

They're residents of Millpond. An extraordinary community of contemporary townhomes in historic North Andover.

At Millpond, a firm regard for the traditions of the past exists side by side with a healthy respect for the joys of modern living.

Take the townhomes themselves. Like the land they occupy, they are bold, rugged, and natural on the outside. Gracious, expansive, and fully convenient on the inside.

There are tennis courts here. A swimming pool. A private beach and boat dock on historic Stevens Pond.

There are nature trails. And ski trails. And riding paths. All on 22 of the most beautiful acres of New England countryside you've ever seen.

The Millpond lifestyle begins at $82,800. Why not come out sometime, and take a careful look at this carefully planned community.

To get here, take Rt. 495 to the Mass. Avenue exit (North Andover). Turn left on 125, and one-half mile later, turn right on Pleasant St. Millpond is one-quarter mile down, on Stevens Pond. From Rt. 128, take 95 North to Exit 15 (Rt. 125 to North Andover). At 114/125, turn left. Bear right at first traffic light, staying on 125. Turn right on Pleasant St., about 1½ miles down. Millpond is a quarter of a mile away.

by the legislature. The total support through user fee would free the 30 per cent operating costs in order to maintain current services in the town.

The new water rates would go into effect with the billings beginning Feb. 1.

At the same time new rates would be established for serving neighboring municipalities. Although the town does not sell that much water to other communities, and only in emergencies, it has been recommended that the rate be increased from .875 per 100 cubic feet to $1.02 per 100 cubic feet.

This will also be considered by selectmen Monday night.

services.

At the conference session this week, Chairman Albert Cole said he felt it was time to inform the townspeople of the board's policy with regard to upcoming budget consideration.

Cole stressed that it was his feeling there should be no expansion of services.

Town Topics

Appointments Approved

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark informed selectmen this week of his intent to appoint Mrs. Sandy Chateauf, 15 Prospect Road and Sean Kennan, 58 Balmoral St., to a subcommittee to work with DPW Director Robert E. McQuade to implement the removal of the architectural barriers program.

Town meeting in April approved use of a $59,000 account initiated during World War II and never used, as a means of implementing a program for removal of architectural barriers for the handicapped. Curb cuts in the downtown area are expected to be among the initial considerations for the program.

Clark also informed selectmen of his intent to appoint Ronald D. Thorpe, Jr., assistant to the headmaster at Phillips Academy, as a member of the Community Services board, formerly the recreation community schools committee.

Clark said the intent was to have some representation from the academy in view of its co-operation with the town in the evening study program.

Board members concurred noting that built in inflation costs will be difficult to deal with, but every effort should be made to keep the tax rate within the same bounds as this year.

Cole asked Town Manager Clark to draft a statement for the board to inform the townspeople of the direction budget planning will take for next year and the relationship between services and the tax rate.

Renovations

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert has noted, is that it's hard to tell just how bad things like wiring and plumbing are until the walls are actually taken down. The state also says the costs of renovations have risen out of proportion to new building costs, and that fewer firms are now interested in reconstruction work.

A warrant article, which would allow the school building committee to use planning funds previously set aside for renovations and additions toward new construction instead, will face the voters at the special Dec. 11 town meeting.

Meanwhile, some $150,000 of the $720,000 allocated by town meeting last spring for architectural and design fees, has already been spent.

New construction, either behind the Stowe-Doherty School complex, or on the Shawshen Road "campus" already occupied by West Jr. High and the High School, would negate the need for double sessions for the junior highs next year.

Christmas Concert

The traditional Christmas Concert at Phillips Exeter Academy will be on Saturday, Dec. 9 at Sunday, Dec. 10. Both performances will begin at 6:45 p.m. in The Phillips Church and are open to the public without charge for admission.
